

Louise Aellen will become Counsel in 2025 (Image: zvg)

Tuesday, December 3, 2024 18:28

Who will be sitting in the elevator at Lalive next year

The international dispute resolution law firm Lalive has promoted a number of lawyers in Switzerland to the beginning of 2025.

The law firm Lalive announced on Tuesday the promotion of Augustin Barrier (International Arbitration) to Partner and the promotion of Louise Aellen (Litigation), Adrien Canivet (International Arbitration), Andrea Florin (Litigation), Roxane Pedrazzini (Litigation) and Gabriela Svalduz (Litigation) to Counsel.

These appointments will take effect on January 1, 2025, it was further learned.

Augustin Barrier ( pictured above ) joined Lalive's Geneva office in 2016. He specializes in international commercial arbitration and investment protection arbitration with a particular focus on joint ventures, supply and distribution disputes, and disputes concerning foreign investments in the energy and mining sectors, particularly in Europe and Africa.

Louise Aellen joined Lalive's Geneva office in 2019. She specializes in complex national and cross-border litigation, particularly in the areas of banking law, white collar crime and international mutual legal assistance in criminal matters.

Adrien Canivet joined Lalive's London office in 2021. He specialises in international commercial and investment arbitration and has extensive experience in disputes in the construction, energy, mining, automotive, defence and financial services sectors. He also advises on public international law matters.

Andrea Florin joined Lalive's Zurich office in 2019. She specializes in civil and employment law and has particular expertise in advising and representing private clients in complex national and international disputes in family and inheritance law.

Roxane Pedrazzini joined Lalive's Geneva office in 2018 and is currently spending a year on secondment in the London office. She specialises in domestic and cross-border litigation and represents clients in both civil and criminal proceedings. Her area of expertise includes in particular complex financial, banking and commercial disputes, fraud litigation, asset recovery and employment law.

Gabriela Svalduz joined Lalive's Zurich office in 2022. Previously, she worked as a prosecutor, focusing on economic crime and cybercrime. She specializes in complex national and cross-border disputes, in particular economic crime, asset recovery, international mutual legal assistance, internal investigations and compliance, particularly in the area of anti-corruption, anti-money laundering, blockchain technologies and ESG issues.