

Adam El-Hakim Partner, Zurich

Adam specialises in white-collar crime, asset recovery, mutual legal assistance in criminal matters, internal investigations and compliance. He advises and represents clients before authorities and courts at all stages of criminal proceedings. He has extensive experience in complex domestic and cross-border criminal litigation, including matters involving anti-fraud, anti-money laundering, and anti-bribery regulations. He is also the co-founder of the Private Claimants Network, an initiative dedicated to strengthening the role of victims of financial crime in criminal proceedings.

Recognised for his ability to navigate sensitive, high-stakes matters with discretion and strategic insight, Adam assists clients in mitigating regulatory risks and managing multi-jurisdictional disputes. His practice combines deep technical expertise in criminal law with a pragmatic approach tailored to financial institutions, corporates across sectors, and private clients.

He regularly contributes to thought leadership on financial crime and internal investigations, sharing insights on emerging trends and enforcement developments.
