

Adrien Canivet Counsel, London

Adrien has over ten years of experience in international commercial arbitration, investor-State disputes and public international law. He also has experience of English court and cross-border litigation. He advises and represents clients in a wide range of industry sectors, including banking, energy, construction, telecoms, automotive, defence and mining.

Adrien is dual-qualified as a French avocat and as an English solicitor and is therefore well-equipped to navigate the complexities of cross-border disputes.

Adrien formerly taught English contract and tort law at Paris-Dauphine University, London campus.
