LALIVE Counsel Sandrine Giroud appointed Director of the Art Law Foundation

The Board of the Art Law Foundation has appointed LALIVE Counsel Sandrine Giroud as a Director, tasked with further developing the activities of the Foundation on a domestic and international level.

Established in Geneva for more than 20 years, the Art Law Foundation mainly aims to promote and coordinate the work and research in the field of art law. In particular, it supports the research and teaching activities of the Art Law Centre, regularly organising conferences and workshops in the field.

The Art Law Foundation currently has over 500 active members and supporters from the legal community, museums, auction houses, galleries, banks, insurances, and so on.
