IBA Mining Committee Appointment

We are delighted to announce that partner Jaime Gallego has been appointed as the Young Lawyers' Committee Liaison Officer of the International Bar Association's (IBA) Mining Law Committee.

The committee encourages the exchange of information and opinions amongst members regarding laws, customs, and protocols that have an impact on aspects of worldwide mineral and mining operations. This appointment reinforces LALIVE's strong commitment to the IBA, with a number of partners holding committee positions.

More information about our mining practice is available here.
