

LALIVE

LALIVE ranked as top global arbitration firm in Lexology Index: Arbitration 2026

We are proud to announce that LALIVE has been ranked among the top 10 firms globally in the latest Lexology Index: Arbitration report, highlighting our standing as one of the leading firms for international arbitration.

LALIVE is the only firm in the top 10 to have all of its arbitration partners ranked in the report. Fourteen partners are listed, including “Global Elite Thought Leaders” Matthias Scherer and Bernd Ehle; “Thought Leaders” Domitille Baizeau, Melissa Magliana, Joachim Knoll, Noradèle Radjai and Catherine Anne Kunz; “Highly Recommended” Marc Veit, Lorraine de Germiny and Werner Jahnel; “Recommended” Jaime Gallego; and “Future Leaders – Partners” Genevieve Poirier, Sam Moss and Augustin Barrier. In addition, two of our senior counsel are ranked, “Thought Leader” Michael E. Schneider and “Highly Recommended” Teresa Giovannini.

These rankings underscore LALIVE’s strength and depth in international arbitration, standing alongside many of the world’s largest firms while maintaining our distinctive focus and expertise. They reflect the exceptional talent of our senior practitioners and the next generation of leaders who continue to drive innovation and excellence in complex international disputes.

This year’s report, produced by Lexology Index in collaboration with Global Arbitration Review (GAR), is the result of months of in-depth research, drawing on thousands of submissions from leading law firms and feedback from clients around the world.

The full Lexology Index: Arbitration 2026 report can be accessed here.

Key contacts

Matthias Scherer
Partner
Zurich

Bernd Ehle
Partner
Geneva

Domitille Baizeau
Partner
Geneva

Melissa Magliana
Partner
Zurich

Joachim Knoll
Partner
Geneva

Noradèle Radjai
Partner
Geneva

Catherine Anne Kunz
Partner
Geneva

Marc D Veit
Partner
Zurich

Lorraine de Germiny
Partner
London

Werner Jahnel
Partner
Zurich

Jaime Gallego
Partner
Geneva

