

LALIVE

LALIVE announces latest partner and counsel promotions

The Partners are delighted to announce the promotion of Benoît Mauron and Sam Moss to the LALIVE partnership as of 1 January 2022, as well as the promotion to counsel of arbitration associates Juliette Asso and Laura Azaria, and litigation associates Marion Binder and Simon Quedens.

Benoît Mauron joined LALIVE in 2015 and practises in litigation, representing clients in both civil and criminal Swiss proceedings, with a focus on domestic and cross border commercial disputes and fraud litigation, including asset recovery. He is a member of the founding committee of FIRE Starters, a platform for fraud, insolvency, recovery and enforcement practitioners and frequently represents the firm as a speaker on these topics.

Benoît holds an LLM degree from Columbia Law School and a Master in Swiss Law from the University of Lausanne. He is admitted to practise in Switzerland (2012) and in New York (2019).

Sam Moss joined LALIVE in 2008. He practises in international commercial and investment treaty arbitration, specialising in the construction and energy sectors. He has strong expertise in the management of complex claims in relation to construction projects. He also acts as arbitrator. Sam is a founder and co-chair of YConstruction, an international group for young construction arbitration practitioners, and an officer of the International Bar Association's International Construction Projects Committee.

Sam holds a Master in International Law from the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies in Geneva. He also holds joint common and civil law degrees (BCL/LLB (Honours), with great distinction) from McGill University. Sam was admitted to practise law in New York in 2009.

Juliette Asso joined LALIVE in Geneva in 2013. She specialises in international commercial arbitration, with a focus on complex disputes involving major infrastructure and construction projects in the energy, transportation, and telecom sectors.

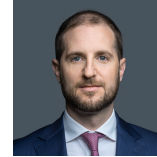

Juliette holds a Master in Business Law from the University of Paris II Panthéon-Assas and a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Cergy-Pontoise. She also completed an MBA at ESSEC Business School (Grande Ecole Programme) in Paris. She was admitted to the Paris bar in 2013.

Laura Azaria joined LALIVE in Geneva in 2014 and also specialises in international commercial arbitration. She has extensive experience in contract disputes, with emphasis on infrastructure and construction projects, sales, distribution, M&A, joint venture and shareholders agreements. She also represents parties in arbitration-related court proceedings, including before the Swiss Federal Supreme Court.

Laura holds an LLM from Columbia Law School (Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar Honours) and a Master of Economic Law and a Certificate of Advanced Studies in Legal Professions from the University of Geneva. She was admitted to practise in Switzerland (Geneva bar) in 2012.

Marion Binder joined LALIVE in Zurich in 2017 and specialises in private client advisory and litigation work, advising and representing private clients in complex domestic and international inheritance and family law disputes.

Marion holds a Master of Laws from the Universities of Zurich and Lausanne (Joint-Degree Master MLaw UZH/UNIL; summa cum laude). She was admitted to practise in Switzerland (Zurich bar) in 2016.

Benoît A Mauron

Partner
Geneva

Sam Moss

Partner
Zurich

Juliette Asso (Richard)

Counsel
Geneva

Laura Azaria

Counsel
Geneva

Marion Binder

Counsel
Zurich

Simon P Quedens

Counsel
Geneva

