LALIVE partner Catherine Anne Kunz and fellow founders won The GAR equal representation in Arbitration Pledge Award 2021

We are delighted LALIVE Partner Catherine Anne Kunz and fellow founders have won the GAR Equal Representation in Arbitration Pledge award, for the launch of “Mute Off Thursdays”, a weekly virtual forum for senior women in international arbitration launched a year ago (more information here).

The award was presented at the GAR Awards ceremony last night, and recognises Mute Off Thursdays for its outstanding commitment to gender diversity in the field of international arbitration. The 500-strong global forum has enabled members to stay connected and build know-how during the pandemic.
