

YOUNG ARBITRATORS FORUM

PROGRAMME

ICC YAF CONFERENCE ON THE OCCASION OF THE ICC VIS PRE-MOOT

Paris, 3 April 2017 (18:00)

Free of Charge

Venue: Norton Rose Fulbright, 40 rue de Courcelles, 75008 Paris

Event description

The ICC YAF Conference is part of the ICC Pre-Moot for the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot. This year, it will be organized in the evening of the first Pre-Moot day.

The Conference will bring together young arbitration practitioners and moot participants to discuss two important issues of today's international arbitration. The first panel will address an issue related to this year's Moot problem – the security for costs. The second panel will discuss the benefits and downsides of enhanced transparency in international arbitration.

Programme

- 17:30 – 18:00 Registration
- 18:00 – 19:00 Panel discussion on the Security for costs: A myth or a reality?
- 19:00 – 20:00 Oxford-style debate: This house believes that international arbitration awards should be published
- 20:00 – 22:00 Cocktail reception

Panel members

Marie Bérard
Partner, Clifford Chance, London

Damien Devot
Partner, Mayer Fabre, Paris

Lorraine de Germiny
Associate, LALIVE, Geneva

Giulio Giannini
International Legal Counsel, SNAM

Paul di Pietro
Deputy Counsel, ICC Court of Arbitration

Marija Scekcic
Senior Associate, WilmerHale, London

Gregory Travaini
Associate, Herbert Smith Freehills, Paris

Sven Volkmer
Associate, White & Case LLP, Paris

Moderators

Janice Feigher
Senior Associate, Norton Rose Fulbright, Paris

Clotilde Lemarié
Consultant, Pinsent Masons, London

Registration

Please send your contact details to:
chrystele.coquillet@nortonrosefulbright.com