

The Programme

09.00 Introduction

Chaired by Jason Fry, Clifford Chance and Audley Sheppard, Clifford Chance

09.05 Session I – Decision-making

09.10 Lessons learnt for writing an award
John Beechey, ICC International Court of Arbitration

09.30 Practical advice on reaching a decision, dissents and managing 'difficult' co-arbitrators
Alan Redfern, One Essex Court
Alexis Mourre, Castaldi Mourre & Partners
The Rt Hon. the Lord Woolf, Blackstone Chambers

10.10 The standard and burden of proof
Hilary Heilbron QC, Brick Court Chambers
Domenico Di Pietro, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

10.45 Party perspective
Richard Hill, Shell

11.00 Coffee break

11.15 Session II – Practical issues affecting Awards

11.20 What do the ICC Secretariat and Court like to see in an award?
John Beechey, ICC International Court of Arbitration
Alexander Fessas, ICC International Court of Arbitration
Wendy Miles, Boies, Schiller & Flexner

12.45 Lunch

14.00 Session III – Orders of Emergency arbitrators

14.05 The nature of the decision and enforcement issues
Jason Fry, Clifford Chance

14.25 Practical aspects of Emergency Arbitrator proceedings
Andrew MacDougall, White & Case

14.45 Session IV – Partial awards

14.50 Advantages and disadvantages of partial awards
Stuart Isaacs QC, Berwin Leighton Paisner

15.10 "Res judicata" of partial awards
Christer Söderlund, Vinge

15.30 Coffee break

15.45 Session V – National law

15.50 The relevance of national law to drafting and enforcement of awards
Louis Flannery, Stephenson Harwood
Noradèle Radjai, Lalive
Maxi Scherer, WilmerHale and Queen Mary,
University of London, School of International Arbitration

16.40 Update on setting aside cases at the place of
arbitration
Carole Malinvaud, Gide Loyrette Nouel

17.00 Close and networking reception