Invitation

Roschier is happy to invite international arbitration practitioners to

Roschier Arbitration Forum 2011

This full-day event on 23 May will see our distinguished panels, composed of leading Swedish and international arbitration practitioners as well as experienced in-house counsel, addressing a number of issues relating to the topic of

Arbitration Strategy

Planning and carrying out arbitration proceedings involves careful preparations at the outset, especially in relation to promoting efficiency. Equally important is conducting the hearing with impeccable advocacy skills, while also taking into account ethical considerations. Strategies relating to these phases of the proceedings will be discussed both from the counsel and client perspective. The discussions will conclude with a debate on the future of arbitration. We invite you to share your views in a floor discussion.
