

Independence and Impartiality of Arbitrators in Small Countries

Tallinn, Estonia, 23 April 2015

Young Arbitration Club Finland has the pleasure of inviting you to Tallinn, Estonia to take part in our first arbitration event in the Baltics, focusing on independence and impartiality in small countries.

During the seminar, two panels will address the topic from different angles. The substantive program will be followed by drinks and mingling in an informal setting.

Date and time	Thursday, 23 April 2015 from 4 pm
Venue	National Library, Tõnismägi 2, Tallinn, Estonia
Registration	Please register by sending an e-mail to Ms. Elisa Kaakinen (elisa.kaakinen@roschier.com) stating your name, organization and city on or before Wednesday, 15 April 2015.

The event is free of charge. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come-first-served basis. Places are limited, so reserve your spot now.

Confirmed speakers include Laura Halonen (Lalive, Geneva), Theis Klauberg (bnt attorneys, Riga), Ants Mailend (Varul, Tallinn), Heidi Merikalla-Teir (Arbitration Institute of the Finland Chamber of Commerce (FAI), Helsinki), Solveiga Palevičienė (Glimstedt, Vilnius), Pirkka-Marja Pöldvere (Aivar Pilv Law Office, Tallinn), Tuuli Timonen (White & Case, Helsinki) and Toomas Vaher (Raidla, Lejins & Norcoux, Tallinn).

For more information on YACF, visit www.yacf.fi.

In cooperation with:

RAIDLA LEJINS & NORCOUS

LAWIN

VARUL