BIOGRAPHY

Jonathon Boroski joined LALIVE in 2017. His main areas of practice are white-collar crime, compliance and sanctions related matters. He assists clients with internal investigations and compliance reporting and has specialist experience in issues related to cross-border monitorships and data protection. In addition, his practice includes ESG, public contracts, anti-money laundering, anti-bribery and private client matters. He is an active member of the firm's pro bono practice group.

Prior to joining LALIVE, Jonathon Boroski served as an attorney with the Claims Resolution Tribunal for Dormant Accounts and worked in the compliance and trust departments at several leading international banks.

Jonathon Boroski is a member several professional organizations, including the American Bar Association and International Bar Association. He is also a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) and holds the STEP Certificate in International Trust Management (Distinction). He also served two terms as a member of the Foreigners' Council (Ausländerbeirat) for the city of Zurich.

Jonathon Boroski holds a (J.D.) Juris Doctorate from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and completed the International and Comparative Business Law Program at Bucerius Law School in Hamburg, Germany. He received his Bachelor of Arts cum laude in Political Science and German from Washington and Jefferson College.
