BIOGRAPHY

Jonathon Boroski joined LALIVE in 2017. He specialises in white-collar crime and compliance, including working on the firm's legal and compliance projects. He also assists clients with internal investigations and compliance reporting and has specialist experience in issues related to cross-border monitorships and data protection. In addition, his practice also includes litigation, public contracts, sanctions, anti-money laundering and anti-bribery matters.

Prior to joining LALIVE, Jonathon Boroski worked for over eight years in the private banking and trust industry in Zurich, including in the Financial Crime Compliance department of a leading international bank. He previously served as an attorney with the Claims Resolution Tribunal for Dormant Accounts.

Jonathon Boroski is a member of the American Bar Association as well as the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) and holds the STEP Certificate in International Trust Management (Distinction). He also served two terms as a member of the Foreigners' Council (Ausländerbeirat) of the city of Zurich.

Jonathon Boroski graduated with a Juris Doctorate from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and completed the International and Comparative Business Law Program at Bucerius Law School in Hamburg, Germany. He received his Bachelor of Arts cum laude in Political Science and German.
