BIOGRAPHIE

Sandrine Giroud a rejoint LALIVE en 2009 et en est associée depuis 2017. Elle est spécialisée en contentieux suisse et international en matière d'affaires commerciales et financières, fraude et recouvrement d'avoirs, criminalité économique, assistance judiciaire internationale (civile et pénale), sanctions internationales, droit international public et droits de l'Homme. Elle conseille et représente ainsi régulièrement sociétés et individus pour recouvrer et protéger leurs actifs par le biais de mesures provisionnelles et séquestre, de procédures de reconnaissance et d'exécution de jugements étrangers et de sentences arbitrales, de procédures d'insolvabilité transfrontalières et d'exécution de contrats. Elle conseille également des entités sur des questions de gouvernance et de compliance internationales, concernant notamment les questions ESG, ainsi que des organisations internationales sur des questions de droit suisse et d'immunité.

Experte reconnue en droit de l'art et en contentieux en matière clientèle privée, notamment en droit des trusts et en droit international de la famille, Sandrine Giroud représente des collectionneurs, des professionnels de l'art et des musées concernant des litiges et des affaires transactionnelles en art, ainsi que des individus confrontés à des litiges privés complexes. Elle est particulièrement expérimentée dans la gestion d'affaires sensibles et des situations de crise nécessitant la prise en charge d'aspects réputationnels ou médiatiques.

Sandrine Giroud est membre de nombreuses associations professionnelles dont l'Ordre des avocats de Genève (ODA) dont elle est la vice-bâtonnière, la Fédération suisse des avocats (FSA/SAV), l'International Bar Association (IBA), la Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) et l'Association genevoise du droit des affaires (AGDA). Officer de l'IBA Litigation Committee depuis 2015, Sandrine Giroud a été nommée Officier Senior en 2021. Passionnée d'art, elle est aussi membre du conseil de fondation de plusieurs organisations dans ce domaine, telles que le Musée national suisse, le Musée international de la Croix-Rouge et du Croissant-Rouge, et la Fondation pour le droit de l'art (qu'elle a co-dirigé de 2014 à 2017). Ancien membre de la Task Force de la Responsible Art Market Initiative (RAM), elle est reconnue comme membre du Professional Advisors to the International Art Market (PAIAM). Elle a été nommée au conseil de la nouvelle Cour d'Arbitrage des Arts (CAfA) et fait partie du groupe d'arbitres sélectionnés pour cette cour. Elle intervient régulièrement dans des conférences internationales et publie fréquemment dans ses domaines de spécialisation.

Sandrine Giroud est reconnue comme experte par Chambers and Partners en Asset Tracing and Recovery, White Collar Crime et Art law, par The Legal 500 en matière de Litigation et Banking and Finance ainsi que par Who's Who Legal en matière de Litigation, Asset Recovery et Private Client.

Avant de rejoindre LALIVE, Sandrine Giroud était collaboratrice scientifique à l'Office fédéral de la justice à Berne (2006-08). Elle est diplômée de l'Université de Fribourg (2003) et a étudié à l'Université de Bristol (2000-01) ainsi qu'au Centre de droit international humanitaire de l'Université de Nottingham (2004). Elle est également titulaire d'un LL.M. en règlement des différends internationaux délivré conjointement par l'Université de Genève et l'Institut de Hautes Études Internationales et du Développement (2009) et d'un certificat avancé STEP en droit des trusts (2012).
