

“Dos and Don’ts when Agreeing to Arbitrate: Swiss and Turkish Perspectives”

A joint seminar co-organized by ASA below 40 and Young ISTAC

Friday, 26 October 2018, Geneva Chamber of Commerce & Industry, Geneva, Switzerland

About the Seminar

This joint seminar is open to arbitration practitioners up to approximately forty years of age. There will be two sessions. One speaker of each session will introduce the session by a short presentation of about fifteen minutes from the perspective of Turkey and another speaker from the perspective of Switzerland, followed by an interactive discussion amongst the participants. Each session will be led by a moderator. All participants are encouraged to share their experience.

The seminar is free of charge. Dress code is smart casual.
