BIOGRAPHY

Simon Bianchi joined LALIVE in 2019 as an associate. His main area of practice is international commercial and investment arbitration involving a variety of sectors.

Before joining LALIVE, Simon Bianchi trained with Tavernier Tschanz (2018-2019), a boutique law firm in Geneva. He is a teaching assistant at the University of Geneva, where he supervises the student team for the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot.

Simon Bianchi is a member of several professional associations, including the Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA), ASA below 40 and Young ICCA.

Simon Bianchi holds a Bachelor of International Relations (2015), a Certificate in Transnational Law (2016), a Master's degree in Business Law (2017) and a Certificate of Advanced Studies in Legal Professions (2017), all from the University of Geneva. He was admitted to the Geneva Bar in 2019.
