BIOGRAPHY

Eva Altmann joined LALIVE in 2020 as an associate. Her main area of practice is international commercial and investment arbitration involving a variety of sectors.

Before joining LALIVE, Eva Altmann trained with a leading business law firm in Zurich and completed an internship in the international arbitration group of an international law firm in London. She also was an intern at the Swiss Embassy in Berlin for six months.

Eva Altmann is a member of the Swiss Arbitration Association's below 40 group (ASA below 40), the German Arbitration Institute's under 40 group (DIS-40) and Young ICCA.

Eva Altmann holds a Bachelor in International Affairs as well as a Bachelor and Master in Law from the University of St. Gallen. During her studies she was part of the team representing the University of St. Gallen in the 2016 Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Court. She was admitted to the Zurich Bar in 2020.
