BIOGRAPHY

Jagpreet Sandhu joined LALIVE in 2021. He specialises in international commercial arbitration and investor-State disputes with a focus on the energy sector, having worked on disputes arising out of major rare metals, iron ore, oil and LNG projects in Australia and the MENA region. He is experienced in acting under key arbitration rules, including the ICC, UNCITRAL, LCIA, SCC, HKIAC, and SIAC Rules and the ICSID Convention.

Prior to joining LALIVE, Jagpreet was an Associate in Clifford Chance's International Arbitration Group in Perth, Australia (2019-2021). He has also completed internships with WilmerHale in London (2018), the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in Hong Kong (2016), UNCITRAL in South Korea (2016), and the United Nations Assistance to the Khmer Rouge Trials in Cambodia (2016).

Jagpreet is a former Director of the UNCITRAL Co-ordination Committee of Australia and remains actively involved in the promotion and adoption of UNCITRAL texts in the Asia-Pacific region.

He is proficient in English, Malay and Indonesian and holds dual degrees in Law (Honours) (2018) and Arts (2013) from La Trobe University in Melbourne, Australia.
