

LALIVE

KATHERINE JONCKHEERE

Associate

Admission

England & Wales, 2021

New York, 2015

Brussels, 2013 (inactive)

Nationality

Belgian

Languages

Dutch, English, French

Practices

International Commercial Arbitration

Investment Arbitration

Areas of focus

Energy & Mining

Corporate & Commercial

Construction & Infrastructure

Technology and Telecom

tel: +44 20 3880 1540

email: kjonckheere@lalive.law

9 Cloak Lane, London,

EC4R 2RU, United Kingdom

BIOGRAPHY

Katherine Jonckheere joined LALIVE in 2022 and specialises in international commercial and investment arbitration. She has acted as counsel in a number of arbitrations governed by a variety of arbitration rules (including ICC, LCIA, SCC, ICSID and UNCITRAL) and applicable laws, across several sectors including energy and mining, and construction.

Before joining LALIVE, Katherine worked as an associate at Three Crowns LLP in London (2015-2022) and as a legal counsel at the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (2014-2015). She originally trained as a Belgian lawyer at the Brussels Bar (2010-2013).

She is a member of various professional associations, and currently serves as a Regional Representative for Young ICCA, a leading arbitration knowledge network for young practitioners and students under the auspices of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration (ICCA). She is also part of the leadership of CyberArb, an initiative for cybersecurity in international arbitration.

Katherine obtained her LL.M. from Stanford Law School and her law degree from Ghent University, having also spent one semester studying at the American University (Washington College of Law). She is fluent in English and Dutch, and proficient in French.

PUBLICATIONS

Lifestyle v. Hornby Street and others – Judgment of the Court of Appeal of England and Wales, 28 January 2022

Genevieve Poirier, Katherine Jonckheere

In: Jus Mundi, May 2022